Dear Joe:

Subject: [redacted] Coverage

This will acknowledge receipt of your 21 June 1955 memo on this subject. Since [redacted] is away on annual leave, I am undertaking to reply.

25X1A9A

FOIAB3B1 I think your proposal is a good one and believe that it will work out well for both [redacted] from an operational standpoint. To the greatest extent possible, we should centralize coverage of [redacted] in Far Eastern languages and this will help achieve this goal.

25X1A9A

25X1A7B One administrative caution on the transfer of [redacted]. He will, of course, receive the salary being paid at the [redacted] and should, therefore, be given an opportunity to resign after appropriate notice and return [redacted] even though his two years have not been fulfilled. If, of course, he desires to transfer, he may carry with him accrued annual and sick leave. Please ask for travel orders by teletype when desired.
